

Volunteer for equality!

You are fired up for human rights, equality and want to gain experience in LGBT* activism?

You are interested in artistic activism and non - formal education?

You are ready to explore the (almost) unknown Lithuanian culture?

Then LGL is looking for YOU!

About us:

The 'National LGBT* Rights Organisation LGL' was founded in 1995 in Vilnius as the 'Lithuanian Gay League'. It is the only organization in Lithuania exclusively representing the interests of the local LGBT* community. You can read more about LGL on www.lgl.lt/en.

Lithuania:

The country is situated in Eastern Europe and has approximately 3 million inhabitants, the capital is Vilnius. Although Lithuania is a member of the European Union it often struggles with equal rights for the LGBT* community. For more info click here.

Volunteering:

LGL offers you many opportunities and challenges. Together with us you can discover what advocacy is, how design can contribute to community building, what the life of an activist looks like, why we need community work, how a project work based organization can survive, what social marketing is, and much, much more.
